the book explores the central question facing humanity today how can we best survive the ten great existential challenges that are now coming together to confront us besides describing these challenges from the latest scientific perspectives it also outlines and integrates the solutions both at global and individual level and concludes optimistically this book brings together in one easy to read work the principal issues facing humanity it is written for the two next generations who will have to deal with the compounding risks they inherit and which flow from overpopulation resource pressures and human nature the author examines ten intersecting areas of activity mass extinction resource depletion wmd climate change universal toxicity food crises population and urban expansion pandemic disease dangerous new technologies and self delusion which pose manifest risks to civilization and potentially to our species long term future this isn t a book just about problems it is also about solutions every chapter concludes with clear conclusions and consensus advice on what needs to be done at global level but it also empowers individuals with what they can do for themselves to make a difference unlike other books it offers integrated solutions across the areas of greatest risk it explains why homo sapiens is no longer an appropriate name for our species and what should be done about it the successful book il secolo decisivo is available for the first time in english now in a new revised edition at the turn of the 22nd century human beings are living in the most prosperous moment in history the many crises that troubled them at the dawn of the millennium are a distant memory the economy exists in balance with the environment and work has become a personal choice but how did we get here how did we solve the great problems of the contemporary world from climate change to the labor market crisis from the gaping inequalities in wealth distribution to the spreading new populisms and nationalisms using a broad range of academic sources and an accessible writing style tabellini offers a vision of a prosperous future with its roots firmly in the present and its branches always in the realm of possibility the must read history of the 21st century you will be surprised to hear that optimism is an innate quality of civilization and that better times must be ahead of us this will happen because the human race is a product of evolution and evolution is characterized by its ability to forge ahead this book will show you why the 21st century will be the best that civilization has ever seen technology will continue to unleash progress in a way never seen before and computers leading the bio and nano technologies could very well create a world of abundance for all to create this world of abundance for all the inhabitants of the earth there will be a need to recognize that people are not only citizens but they are also and foremost consumers if the world ever thinks like this the poor will be rich and the rich even richer the twentieth century was for the most part an unfolding of the nineteenth but the twenty first century is a time of open ended transition this remarkable book attempts to provide a cartography of the contemporary global framework of knowledge and culture that can tell us where we ve arrived in the new millennium and where we are headed it is organized around some of the ideas products and practices that constitute everyday life the future of knowledge and culture is a dictionary that defies the grid of conventionality it invites the reader to debate and exchange ideas with some of the most daring thinkers in the world from gustavo esteva the scholar activist associated with the zapatistas writing on grass roots to ziauddin sardar historian of science and islamic scholar exploring the internet from douglas lummi radically rethinking existing definitions of democracy to manu kothari and lopa mehta taking on modern medical wisdom to celebrate the wisdom of the body and majid rahnema who stands the conventional idea of poverty on its head nothing is beyond the scope of this dictionary from weapons of mass destruction to plague sacred groves to the philosophy of coca cola spin doctors to maps bollywood to coronary bypass the sixty five entries seem to cover only a cross section of life but their concern is nothing less than altering an entire way of thinking that has become ingrained in us thanks to our education upbringing lazy habits of thought and fear of scepticism this book challenges us to rethink the world of the urban middle class certainties suggesting that an open spirit and the ability to live in multiple often contradictory worlds may be the key to our survival in the new century
